2017 Annual Report

Message From The President

Dear Friend of the American Bald Eagle:

For over 200 years, the Bald Eagle has served as the proud and majestic living symbol of the United States. It was adopted as the national emblem by our country's Founding Fathers at the Second Continental Congress in 1782. Since that time, it has since stood for America's independence, democracy, ideals and traditions.

The removal of the Bald Eagle from Endangered Species Act (ESA) protection took place in July 2007, but the stately bird is still substantially protected by the Bald & Golden Eagle Protection Act of 1940.

The Bald Eagle's dramatic recovery from the brink of extinction is truly an American success story. Millions of Americans have good reason to celebrate the eagles' homecoming to our lands, waterways and skies.

In the early 1960's, we almost lost this beautiful bird due to our own carelessness. It had once flourished throughout the lower 48 states, but became a rare and endangered species due to years of indiscriminate shooting by poachers and the widespread use of the DDT pesticide on crops.

However our nation's people and government were resolved to save this magnificent bird. They became vigilant in its protection and worked resourcefully together for decades to bring the eagle back from the brink of extinction. At last, they have been successful. Today, Bald Eagles are thriving in virtually every state in the union, (except Hawaii, where they have never ranged).

Now, with real victory finally within our reach, the vital funding needed to support further eagle population monitoring and the safeguarding of critical nesting/foraging habitat is becoming more scarce.

During this century, federal and state agencies have been gradually transferring to the public more responsibility for the preservation and care of their national bird. The American Eagle Foundation (AEF) is a non-profit citizens' effort dedicated to conducting programs and creating an endowment fund that will ensure a secure and healthy future for this precious national treasure.

Without on-going protection through more public/private partnerships, Bald Eagle population numbers could possibly decline again. Protecting eagle nesting and feeding habitat and continuing education and eagle restoration programs in coming years will be very costly.

Dwindling federal dollars will mean an increased need for private sector funding, conservation efforts, and cooperative land management agreements between individual property owners and federal, state, and private agencies.

Since 1985, the AEF has provided support for eagle and environmental projects in numerous states. Today, it continues to conduct conservation education and public awareness programs across the country. However, the demand for these efforts and other program services are always much greater than the resources we have on hand to provide them.

More than ever before, support from the American people is now needed to keep eagle care, monitoring and recovery programs going forward and progressing.

We invite you to join us in celebrating the return of this precious symbol of freedom to our nation's lands, waterways, and skies.

With your help, we can keep America's eagles flying strong and free for future generations to enjoy.

I hope you will join and support our dedicated team and noble cause.

Sincerely yours,

Al Louis Cecere

The multimillion dollar complex includes a gigantic aviary that features the world's largest presentation of "non-releasable" Bald Eagles, all displayed in an outdoor natural habitat. An educational Birds of Prey show is performed six months out of the year in a theater adjacent to the eagle aviary. Also, the Foundation rehabilitates injured birds of prey, conducts eagle/environmental education programs, and hatches young eagles for release into the wild. The Foundation raptor facility officially opened its doors in April 1991.

From 1991 to the present, numerous national corporations have given the Foundation financial support to conduct a variety of local, state-wide, regional and national programs, including fundraising, marketing, public education and birds of prey care/recovery.

Since 1991, the Foundation has participated in the U.S. Government's Combined Federal Campaign. The Foundation's participation in the CFC has been annually approved by the U.S. Office of Personnel Management under strict guidelines. The Foundation is a member of Animal Charities of America, which is an affiliate member of Independent Charities of America. The Foundation and its "live" trained eagles and birds of prey have participated in many CFC promotional and educational events, including for the Defense Intelligence Agency, Library of Congress, Defense Nuclear Agency, Defense Mapping Agency, Pentagon, Naval Surface Warfare Center, Army Corps of Engineers, U.S. State Department, U.S. Department of Commerce, U.S. Postal Service and U.S. Coast Guard.

Auditor's Responsibility Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.
An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.
We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.
Opinion In our opinion, the financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of American Eagle Foundation as of December 31, 2017 and 2016, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The American Eagle Foundation is a public, non-profit organization established in November 1985 to assist and develop private, state, and federal birds of prey conservation projects throughout the United States. The Foundation operates within the meaning of sections 170(c)(2)(b), 501(c)(3), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code as a scientific, charitable, and educational organization.

The Foundation is designed and instituted to restore America's living National Symbol, the Bald Eagle, to appropriate and non-endangered population levels and to continue the protection, restoration, caring, education, monitoring, research, and enhancement programs necessary to maintain those levels.

The Foundation is also committed to environmental education, scientific conservation research, and direct-action protection of America's endangered wildlife, ecosystems, and natural resources (with special emphasis on clean water, air and soil, as well as forest, river, and wetland conservation). Strong emphasis is placed on conservation projects within the 50 United States, especially in key areas where biological and ecological diversity are at great risk, and where America's most precious wildlife and natural resources are most urgently threatened.

The Foundation seeks and receives the majority of its financial support from voluntary contributions made by the general public, and is non-commercial, non-denominational, non-partisan politically, and not designed to influence legislation.
